VOLUME XXXVIII NO 94

STANFORD, LINCOLN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 28 1911.

EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

JUDGE C. A. HARDIN ASCENDS THE BENCH

Is Sworn In At Lancaster Monday,
And Geo. D. Florence Is New Commonwealth's Attorney

It is now Judge Charles A. Hardin. He was sworn in as judge of the Thirteenth judicial district at Lancaster Monday, and assumed the bench at once, Judge Walker retiring to private life again.

Judge Walker was accorded the privilege of holding his last court in his home town, as Judge Hardin did not reach Lancaster until after noon. The juries were empaneled, and Judge Walker charged the grand jury, delivering unto it a very impressive message. He paid a high, deserved and touching tribute to the people of Garrard, his native county in closing his charge.

Judge Hardin's commission from the State Board of Election Commissioners had been mailed to him at Lancaster, in care of Judge Walker, who swore him in as judge upon reconvening of court after the noon recess. Judge Hardin immediately called his docket and set to work upon the business of the court.

The swearing in of Judge Hardin as judge, left a vacancy in the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, and as Governor Willson is still in charge of affairs at Frankfort until Gov.-elect McCreary is sworn in on December 12th it was expected he would appoint a republican to the place.

On Monday night he appointed George D. Florence, one of the most prominent young attorneys at the Stanford bar, and who has made a splendid reputation as a lawyer. Mr. Florence had the practically solid endorsements of the bars of the four counties, for the place, and his many democratic friends were hopeful he would be so honored by the governor, since the place had to go to a republican. It is expected that the new prosecutor will begin his duties at the present term of the Garrard court.

Retiring Judge Walker wound up his last term of court in Stanford last Saturday. The members of the local bar adopted the following testimonial to Judge Walker:

We, the undersigned members of the Lincoln county bar, upon the voluntary retirement of Judge L. L. Walker as Judge of the Thirteenth judicial district of Kentucky, desire by this testimonial to express our high appreciation of the fearless, impartial and scholarly way he has discharged the duties of the judgeship. Judge Walker has met every obligation upon his high office in that way calculated to preserve the dignity of the court, the sanctity of the law and the respect of the people for an able and upright judge. He has fully measured up to every requirement of the exalted position, and quits the bench with the admiration and respect of every lawyer who has practiced before him.

And on further motion of the members of the bar subscribing to the above testimonial, it was ordered that the testimonial be recorded in the order book of the court of that day and that the original be delivered to Judge Walker, which was done.

The case of the Willow Springs Distillery Company, against W. O. Speed, which has been pending before the court for some time, was settled by Speed paying $167. Speed was surety upon a note of Hayden Shanks, deceased, and the Distillery brought suit to hold him liable for $800.

The case of the Modern Brotherhood of America against J. F. Grubbs, father of Mrs. Vaughn, was a contest between the administrator of Frank Vaughn's wife and Mr. Vaughn's half brother and sisters as to the disposition of the proceeds of a policy on his life. The wife having died prior to the death of her husband, the court held that the half brothers and sisters of the deceased were the beneficiaries.

The grand jury adjourned, after returning 22 indictments. One was for murder, the negro, "Possum" Rout, four for forgery, one for malicious cutting, three for illegal selling of whisky, one malicious shooting, two for unlawful shooting upon the highway, one for assault, two for carrying a deadly weapon concealed and the rest for misdemeanors. It is understood that the grand jury investigated the shooting of the stranger who was shot by a posse while selling whisky at King's Mountain, but took no action because of the inability to secure the attendance of certain witnesses.

ST. ASAPH CHANGES HANDS.

Clark Jordan, of Waynesburg Becomes New Manager.

Messrs. C. C. Gooch and Hendrick Hays, who have successfully conducted the St. Asaph Hotel since July 1st, have rented that popular hostelry to Clark Jordan of Waynesburg, who will take charge December 1st. Mr. Hays will go to Louisville to take the position of clerk in the postoffice department which he relinquished some months ago to come here. Mr. Gooch is yet undecided as to his future, but thinks of removing to his old home at Waynesburg.

Mr. Jordan has conducted a hotel for many years and patrons of the St. Asaph may feel assured of the best of treatment under his supervision.

AGED MOTHER DIES AT CRAB ORCHARD

Mrs. Joseph Rogers, 81 years of age, died at her home near Crab Orchard on Saturday, November 25th and was buried in the cemetery there Sunday after services at the home by Mr. J. C. McClary. Mrs. Rogers was a splendid woman in every sense of the word and will be greatly missed. She is survived by her husband and several children. She was a faithful member of the Baptist church.

OBSERVE THANKSGIVING

As ministers of the churches of Stanford, we feel it right to urge you the people to properly observe Thanksgiving day, lay aside your business and assemble at the house of God and in this public way give expressions to your gratitude. Patriotism, demands that we comply with the request of our Christ in this matter, and God is well pleased when all the people praise him. We cannot hope for the perpetuity of our free institutions unless we keep in favor with Almighty God. The mightiest nations of the earth have gone down under His displeasure. There will be services at the Methodist church at 10:30 a. m., Rev. P. L. Bruce will deliver the address, Let all the people appear before the Lord in His house.

J. J. Dickey P. L. Bruce, D. M. Walker, J. B. Jones.

COL. DILLION CELEBRATES

Col. W. R. Dillion whom everybody knows and loves was agreeably surprised Monday the occasion of his 69th birthday anniversary, when his sons, Wix, of Paris, Harry, of Richmond, Russell, of Lincoln county, and James and John, of this place prepared a sumptuous dinner in honor of the event. A feast of good things was prepared and the genial colonel the youngest of one of the crowd, made the boys all glad that they had given him this happy surprise. Here's hoping Col. Dillion will reach the century mark.—London Echo.

AN ALL-ROUND ORDER MAN

Col. M. F. Elkin has been in town for the past two weeks assisting in the rejuvenation of the local tent of Maccabees. He had a splendid meeting last Friday and many new members were taken in and old ones re-instated. He will have another meeting this Friday night and has a lot more new candidates to ride the goat. While here Col. Elkin visited all the lodges of the city, all of which he is a splendid talk. Col. Elkin is an enthusiastic order man and has the happy knack of being able to say the right thing at the right time at every meeting he attends.—Lancaster Record.

SPLENDID ENTERTAINMENT

Is Given to Crowded House by Reno, The Great Magician.

No finer entertainment has been seen in Stanford in many years than that given by Reno, the Magician, at the opera house last Friday night. He came here as the third number of the Stanford Lyceum Club's course, and the hall was well filled with a representative audience to see him. Reno "made good" in every sense of the word, and had his audience completely mystified from beginning to end. He performed some 50 or 60 tricks all of which were excellent and in addition kept up a running fire of happy and humorous comment that gave an added charm to the entertainment. Capt. Reno asked for a young man from the audience to go on the stage and assist him, and Tilden Cooper volunteered for the honor and did very fine work.

The Redpath Lyceum Bureau, which is supplying the Stanford Club with its attractions, has given the greatest satisfaction, and with each number the people are more pleased. Reno was promised as probably the best of the whole course, and he certainly was the best that has yet been given. The next two numbers, which are delightful musical entertainments, come in January and February, respectively.

"UNCLE DINK"

Announces as a Candidate For Re-Election As Jailor.

In this issue of the I. J., is found the announcement of Jailor Dink Farmer as a candidate for re-nomination, subject to the action of the Democratic party. There are few better known men and democrats in Lincoln county than "Uncle Dink" and his host of friends will rally to his support as they have done in the past. They say that he has made a splendid record in the office he has had but one term, and like every other officer deserves an endorsement. They will make a fight for him along this line and also upon the splendid record he has made in office. Everyone who knows him knows that he does his duty fearlessly and as he believes is right regardless of what anyone may say.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF LINCOLN COUNTY

I am a candidate for the democratic nomination for County Judge of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the democratic party. I had declared my intention to make the race, and it was so stated in the Interior Journal long before I had ever heard that Mr. Rice who has recently announced, had any intention of making the race.

To be perfectly frank with you, as I have always tried to be, the mere announcement of my intention to make the race did not have the effect of rendering my days miserable nor my nights sleepless by reason of the constant tread of the voters of the county, soliciting and urging me to make the race although, I have received satisfactory assurance of support from every section of the county.

My determination to make the race has been actuated more from a personal desire to be honored by the nomination and election to the very important office of Judge of the county court of my county, than from any pressure from the voters of the county.

In making this announcement I will not rush into print with the declaration, that "I am not the candidate of any clique faction or interest."

A declaration of innocence made before accusation is to say the very least of it, to be regarded with suspicion. We read that, "The wicked flee when no man pursueth," I am fully aware of the importance of the office I seek and the responsibility attached to the proper discharge of the duties of a county judge, but with my long service as county clerk and many years practice as a lawyer, I have no fear as to my qualification to fill the office, in fact, I would not ask the people to elect me to an office that I did not feel perfectly confident I could fill with honor to myself and to the entire satisfaction of the people of my county.

My contention is, that it is almost impossible for a man who is not a lawyer or by reason of a long and close association with the transaction of the business transacted by a county judge, to make a successful and satisfactory county judge.

The increased jurisdiction of the quarterly courts has greatly augmented the volume of business to be transacted by that court and I am at a loss to know how a man, who is not well informed in the law, can rule upon the advisability of testimony and the validity of pleading. He simply has to depend on what some one else says, which is not always a safe thing to do.

A county judge has exclusive jurisdiction in examining trials in all cases of homicide.

He presides at all sessions of the Fiscal Court and it is his duty to keep the members thereof fully posted as to the financial condition of the county.

He passes upon the validity and sufficiency of the bonds of the sheriff and other county officers, when bonds are required and it is his duty to see that statements are properly made.

He has the appointment of guardians and administrators and is his duty to see that good and sufficient bonds are executed, and that settlements are made at stated times. He has exclusive jurisdiction in probating wills, and many other duties which I cannot here enumerate.

I regard the question of maintaining our county roads as being the most important, as well as the most difficult problem, with which the county judge of Lincoln county has to deal. I can only promise that if I am elected county judge it will be my pride and my pleasure to do everything within my power to give the people of my county better roads and safer bridges.

Our neighboring county of Boyle has much better roads than we do and it is mainly due to the use of improved road machinery and I believe that we would do well to adopt their system.

I shall, if elected, delight in giving personal attention to the expenditure of the road and bridge fund of our county, and try as far as it is possible for me to do, to make each dollar buy one hundred cents worth of labor or material. While a member of the legislature I procured the passage of a law authorizing the Fiscal Court to purchase and furnish free tools to be used on the dirt roads. This I believe to be a good law, and I would favor the purchase of a reasonable number of picks and shovels to be furnished to roads where the people are unable to furnish them. I would favor a better road from Crab Orchard to Bee Lick from Ottenheim to Crab Orchard and from Waynesburg to the county line at Eubanks as well as all other dirt roads in the eastern portion of the county so as to provide better facilities for those people to reach the county seat and the railroad shipping points nearest to them. I know personally nearly every democratic voter in the county and I am going to ask you to make me your nominee for County Judge, and I promise you that I will try my very best to make the best county judge that Lincoln county has ever had.

Yours truly
M. F. NORTH.

PAINT LICK

W. P. Kincaid of Stanford has been in this county trying to buy tobacco. He does not offer what the farmers think it is worth.

The farmers in Central Kentucky are not as wise and business like as the farmers of the western part of the State. Our farmers ought to pool their tobacco, by not doing so, they are at the mercy of the American Tobacco Co., who bought it at their own price last year and it seems they will do the same thing this year. The farmers union and all tobacco growers should pool their tobacco by counties and districts thereby secure a better price for this crop.

LINCOLN TO SEND BIG

CROWD TO INAUGURATION

Democrats Will Wear Badges And March in Inaugural Parade—Low Rates on Railroads

Plans are on foot for a Marching Club of Lincoln county Democrats to attend the inauguration of Gov. McCreary in a body at Frankfort on December 12th and many have signified their intention of going. A similar club is being organized in Garrard by Representative-elect John Farra and it is planned to get a special coach on the L. & N. to go straight through to Frankfort. The railroads are making a rate of one fare plus 25 cents for the round trip to Frankfort on account of the inauguration, and many wish to take advantage of the low rate to see the big event, visit the new capitol and other points of interest in the Capital City.

The Interior Journal will print ribbon badges with "Lincoln County Democracy, 291 Majority for McCreary" in big black letters for the local democrats to wear in the big parade, and wants all who will go to call at the office and leave his name for a badge and for publication.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For County Judge.

T. A. Rice announces his candidacy for County Judge of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

M. F. North announces his candidacy for County Judge of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For Jailer.

Peyton Parrish announces his candidacy for Jailer of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

George DeBorde announces his candidacy for Jailer of Lincoln county subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Judge Lewis L. Walker held his last term of court at Stanford last week as Judge of the Thirteenth judicial district. He now goes back to private life whence he was raised by appointment of the Governor upon the death of the late Judge Saufley. He has served a little more than a year upon the bench, and during that time has proved that no mistake was made when a temporary successor was sought to fill the shoes of a man who was conceded by both friends and foes, to have worn the ermine as ably as any man who ever graced the bench in the Commonwealth.

It seems unfortunate in many respects that the vicissitudes of politics should remove Judge Walker from the sphere of action for which he seems so well qualified. Judge Walker "made good" as judge, to use a commonly accepted term used in describing success in any walk of life. He possesses to a remarkable degree judicial poise and temperament, which, coupled with a legal mind, trained in discernment and quick in performance, made him in every sense a splendid judge. He quits the bench with the plaudits of friend and foe—politically—and has won a warm spot in the hearts of those who love even and exact justice to all. His many friends in Lincoln county will wish for him a speedy recovery of his strength, which seems dilatory in returning, after an attack of typhoid fever, and will always extend to him a warm welcome when he returns again in the role of private citizen.

Editor, T. Sanders Orr, of the Harrodsburg Republican, who had a job in the Auditor's office before he got printer's ink on his hands, gives the following sound advice to the Democrats who are preparing to take jobs under the new administration at Frankfort.

"Have a good time boys, as the prospect of 'pie' is fine. We ate a little and enjoyed it hugely—but remember that four years is not long, the cost of living in Frankfort is high, contributions are expected and all in all, the fellows who secure the jobs are not lucky if they fail to lay up a little for the rainy days that are sure to come. Nine out of ten come away with less than they brought and the four years is practically wasted."

The fight for Speaker of the next House is beginning to warm up. Will Shanks Lincoln county's candidate, has a large number of pledged votes and it begins to look like he is a certain winner. The two contending candidates are H. A. Schoberth of Woodford county and Claude Terrill, of Trimble. Mr. Shanks is fighting clear of all factions and entangling alliances, and making a clean fight which his friends believe will land him as the next Speaker. No better man for the place can be found should the whole state be searched, and his friends will be glad to know that he is about to attain this distinguished honor.

Our congratulations to the new Commonwealth's Attorney, George D. Florence, and to Governor Willson upon his appointment. Since a republican had to be chosen, no better selection could have been made and we are confident that Lincoln county and the district will have full reason to feel proud of the record this young man will make.

An Innovation in Oil Heaters

The Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater, with its drums enameled in turquoise, is an ornament to any room, whether in the country or city home.

No home is quite complete without a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a necessity in the fall and spring, when it is too warm to start the regular heating apparatus, and too cool to be without heat. In the midst of winter it is often convenient as an auxiliary heater, as there are always some cold corners in a house.

The enameled heater always presents a nice appearance, as the enamel will not tarnish or burn off. It is not an "enamel paint," but it is the same as the enamel of your cooking utensils.

The Perfection is the most reliable and convenient portable heating device you can find. An automatically-acting flame spreader prevents turning the wick high enough to smoke.
